Description

- Dating principally from 1862 to 1865, this Victorian Gothic style building is a prominent Grade II listed former courthouse and police station overlooking Stony Stratford's historic Market Square.
- Built in red brick, Old Court House has pointed stone window heads, tracery and the striking wheel window above its entrance.
- Since early 2000s occupied by a long-established family law practice, The Old Court House combines rich heritage, architectural significance and a prestigious town centre presence.
- Internally, the accommodation within the solicitor's office includes a combination of open-plan and cellular office suites on both floors. There are kitchenettes and WCs on both ground and first floors. The general specification includes carpeted floors throughout, plastered and painted walls and ceilings.
- Perimeter trunking, a combination of recessed spot and surface mounted strip lighting, gas fired radiator central heating together with smoke, fire and intruder alarms.

Terms

The freehold interest is available at a quote price of £650,000. VAT is on the purchase price.
